Official Paper of the City.

Further Returns.

We find in the Madison Journal some additional returns of the judicial election. Winnebago county is estimated at 3,000 for Cole. Jackson county 500 for Cole. Racine county 1,200 for Cole. Seventeen towns in Dane give Cole 740 majority, and the county is estimated at 1,000. Nine towns and Green Bay in Brown county give 1,497 votes. The Advocate says that Mr. Cole received all the votes except a few given to Mr. Eldredge where the electors supposed he was still running. Juneau county is reported at 500 for Knowlton. A letter from Fred Horn to the Milwaukee News says Washington county has given Knowlton 1,700 majority.

The Madison Argus makes the following estimate:

KNOWLTON.	COLE.
Milwaukee.....800	Racine.....1,000
Waushara.....300	Dane.....500
Walworth.....300	Kenosha.....500
Rock.....1,500	Iowa.....2,000
Jefferson.....1,000	Grant.....2,000
Lafayette.....500	Sauk.....1,200
Ozaukee.....1,000	Fond du Lac.....1,000
Washington.....3,000	Winnebago.....2,500
Dodge.....2,200	Green Lake.....200
Columbia.....500	Outagamie.....500
Crawford.....300	Brown.....1,500
Waushara.....300	Sheboygan.....1,500
Green.....1,400	Jackson.....500
Marquette.....500
13,900	13,300

Of course, some of these estimates are inaccurate. Rock and Washington are too high, and Green probably too low.

BEGINNING OF THE END.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 3d says: "The advances from Texas, if true, are very important and significant. The Mexican General Ampudia is about to enter the state with an army of 3,000 men, which is being daily reinforced, to seize upon what Mexico still considers her property. She is going to strike while the secession iron is hot; just as the United States troops are withdrawn, and before Texas is prepared to defend herself or the confederates to render her assistance. "Between the Mexicans and Indians she is likely to have her hands full, and to realize some of the blessings of the 'independence' she is seeking, and some of the fruits of her ingratitude, treason and perjury. Should the 'Southern Confederacy' happen to get into a war with Mexico and the United States at the same time, a pretty extensive field will be opened for the display of southern valor."

GRATIFYING.—A new volume of the Beloit Journal and Courier commenced this week. The publishers say—"The present number of this paper nearly closes the thirteenth volume of the Journal, and commences the second volume of the Journal & Courier. We are happy to state that we have met with unexpected success during the past year. The circulation and advertising patronage of the Journal & Courier has largely increased, and we are under many obligations to the business men of Beloit, and to the citizens generally for their liberal support. We enter upon the new volume under the most favorable auspices, and shall continue to do whatever is in our power to render the Journal & Courier acceptable to all classes."

We are pleased to hear so good a report from our friends. The Journal and Courier is well entitled to the support it is receiving.

A LARGE REPUBLICAN GAIN.—On the hypothesis adopted by our democratic friends, in relation to the vote in this city, the city of Beloit shows a very large and gratifying republican gain. For two or three years past, the republican mayor has been elected by a very small majority—in one instance inside of half a dozen. This year, however, Mr. Charles H. Farker, who is not only a good citizen but a good republican, has 530 majority. Good for Beloit.

SESSIBLE.—The last London Times reports in this country says that if no point of time can be named at which the difficulties in the United States will be settled, it is not easy to see why England or France should not demand that the United States should either put down rebellion by effectual measures or else allow foreigners to deal with the new confederacy as independent states.

A REPUBLICAN GAIN.—The republicans of Portland elected their candidate for mayor, Wm. W. Thomas, yesterday. Last year the democrats carried the city.

The Pennsylvania, the organ of the late administration at Philadelphia, has been discontinued for want of support.

Quavers from the Capital—No. 6.

THE INTERIOR OF THE CAPITOL.
Entering from the east portico of the capitol we find ourselves at once in the great audience chamber of the republic—the "Rotunda." The first impression on entering is that you are in the centre of a great circular picture gallery. The dimensions of the room are 96 feet in diameter by 220 feet in height. The room in its circuit is divided into eight panels twenty feet in length by fifteen feet in height, and designed for paintings, and all of which are always filled. Of these paintings, which are of a historical and national character, and which form to most visitors the chief attraction of the rotunda, I design to speak in chronological order, but will first mention an incident that occurred here several years ago, and which tells its own story.

Beside these pictures there are four groups of historical sculpture in bas-relief from the chisels of Canova and Capellani, which supply panels over the four principal doors leading from the rotunda. The group over the east door represents the landing of the Pilgrims. It consists of a male and female figure in the act of just stepping on shore, with countenances expressive of deep want and supplication. The other figure is that of an Indian with countenance of the most benign benevolence and commiseration, leaning forward in posture of the heartiest welcome and holding out to the hunger-stricken emigrants an ear of corn.

The subjects over the door leading to the senate chamber represents the treaty of Penn with the Indians. "Friend" William stands with his right hand firmly grasping that of an Indian and holding in his left hand a scroll, labelled "Treaty." He has evidently delivered himself of his argument for the good of his "neighbor," and seems calmly waiting the result. The Indian who is within the peaceful grasp of the "proprietary" general of the province of Pennsylvania, with face turned toward a fellow Indian, seems earnest, though cautious debate, yet with a countenance indicating an unmistakable willingness to "compromise."

Over the door to the west portico is a representation of the interposition of Pocahontas. Capt. Smith is seen in a fallen and imploring position with a furious savage with upraised war-club on each side, while Pocahontas is stooping over the fallen victim with both arms raised to ward off the descending weapons.

The fourth and last group is over the door leading to the house of representatives; and represents the pioneer Daniel Boone with one foot upon the neck of a fallen Indian with a significant bullet hole piercing his left breast, and holding in his left hand a discharged rifle warding off the uplifted war-club of a second savage, and with his right hand firmly clinching the handle of a huge bow knife is just upon the point of introducing that favorite instrument of pioneer argument to a locality under his antagonist's fifth rib!

And now for the incident above referred to. During the winter of 1852 or 1853, a deputation of one of the Kansas tribes of Indians visited Washington, as is their wont, to see the sights and have a "talk with the Great Father," and one day visited, in company with their agent, the great rotunda. The deputation consisted of a chief and three or four "braves." The party seemed highly delighted with the paintings—especially with the highly colored ones, all but the chief. He seemed wholly absorbed with the bas-relief groups above described. Upon being asked by the agent what he thought of the object of his intense scrutiny, he very gravely summed up the case in this wise: Pointing to the subjects in the order I have described them, he said, "Injin give 'em corn," and turning to the bas-relief group, said, "Injin give 'em land," and to the Pocahontas, said, "Injin save 'em white man's life," and then turning to the Boone group, and pointing his finger significantly, and with disadvised emphasis said, "WHITE MAN KILL 'EM INJIN!" What a commentary on civilization! Volumes of just rebuke in a few simple words from one of nature's noblemen—a mullum in parvo the schools have never attained.

A. G. —
WASHINGTON, March 30, 1861.

ABOUT SUMTER.—We are enabled to state the evacuation of Fort Sumter is a measure arising from an inexorable necessity, and is not to be regarded as an act of concession to the rebels and traitors by whom that important fortress is at this moment beleaguered, nor to their supporters and sympathizers in the north and south who guide secession conventions and engineer "democratic" meetings. The question of reinforcement was submitted by the president to a military commission, instituted by him for that purpose, at the head of which was the venerable and patriotic Gen. Scott, than whom no man in the country is more desirous that the authority of the government should be maintained, and the commission of engineers—who conducted all the large operations in Mexico—and three other military and naval men of acknowledged ability and worth were in the commission. With all the facts in the case before these men, they consumed three days in endeavoring to find a loop hole of escape from the dilemma in which Buchanan's treason had placed Major Anderson; but they at last reluctantly and painfully came to the conclusion that the government had neither the men, the money, nor the ships to reinforce him. And they so reported to the president, who fearing that there might be some mistake as to the amount of assistance on hand in Sumter, dispatched Col. Lamson of Illinois thither, with directions to make a personal examination and report the facts. These we believe are all the steps that have been taken in the matter. The final order for the abandonment has not yet been issued. The tendency with which the president without any every day increases the certainty that he must go forth at last, is evidence of his exceeding reluctance to take that step. It cannot long be deferred. The seed which Buchanan sowed when the gallant Anderson abandoned Moultrie and threw his handful of men into Sumter, is bearing fruit.

When the telegraph brings, as it will within a day or two bring, the unwelcome news that the fortress is abandoned, or left only in charge of a sergeant and a file of men, the nation will be shocked, and will be thickly showered upon the man to whom this national disgrace is to be attributed. Mr. Buchanan's load is indeed heavy.—Chicago Tribune.

We are informed that since this report, the Jefferson County Bank, and probably several other business banks, have made their accounts good, by depositing additional securities with the comptroller.

It will be noticed that some of the best reputed banks in the state, especially in Milwaukee, are as deficient in securities as many of the reputed "wild cats." The wealth and capital of the banks make their notes good; notwithstanding a depreciation of securities with the comptroller.

TAX ON FARM BANKS.—It is said that the secession authorities of Louisiana have imposed a tax of $7,300 per annum on every public gambling house in New Orleans.

INCIDENT TO BE FACTIOUS.—Mr. Hassaer, the newly appointed minister to Quito, on the 28th ult., thanked the President for appointing him to the highest place in his gift—that is, nine thousand five hundred feet above the level of the ocean—the altitude of Equador.

Mr. Asa F. Bradley has received the appointment for route agent on Dixon Air Line. Jos. T. Gilliner has been appointed route agent on the Illinois Central railroad between this city and Centralia; A. S. Swan on the Galena railroad to Galena, and C. W. Craig on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad from Chicago to Oshkosh.

The Bristol (Eng.) Post says that one of the parish churches in that neighborhood was lately the scene of a gay wedding, which attracted no small degree of attention from the fact that the bride was a fine young lady, six feet two inches in height, while the happy bridegroom rejoiced in the altitude of three feet two inches.

THE USE OF WORDS.—Yesterday afternoon, notices of a temperance meeting were scattered about the Representative Hall, announcing that "Hon. Thomas Russell, Joseph Story, esq., and several reformers" would address the meeting. A gentleman eminent in the temperance cause thought this manner of expressing it implied that the worthy advocates named were not regenerate, and inserted a word as follows: "Hon. Thomas Russell, Joseph Story, esq., and several other reformed men from the Washingtonian Home" &c.

THE TOWN OF SUMTER.—The town of Sumter, in the county of Lincoln, was organized on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1859, in favor of the above named place, and the name "Sumter" was chosen by the voters of the town.

A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says instructions have been sent to the squadron of Pickets to be on the alert to cooperate with Lieut. Slemmer.

The attorney general is considering the legal authority of the president to collect duties on ship-board, and also his authority to call for volunteers.

The cabinet will determine to-morrow whether to re-inforce or evacuate Sumter.

NEW YORK, March 5.
Fort Lafayette in this harbor has been garrisoned.

Soldiers from Governor's Island will proceed to Fort Hamilton to-day to embark thence on steamers for forts unascertained.

At the navy yard and all the army departments great activity and bustle prevail, and laborers are working day and night at the former on war vessels. Large numbers of naval and army officers are continually arriving and reporting themselves for duty.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

(Condensed from the Milwaukee Sentinel.)

New York, April 4.
The penalty imposed on the steamer Bienville has been remitted.

A special despatch to the Commercial says: Lieut. Gilman has arrived at Washington. He states that great preparations are being made to attack Fort Pickens, and troops are being drilled daily by the southern officers. An attack is momentarily expected.

A special despatch to the Times says: The batteries on Morris Island fired into an unknown steamer, last night, for not displaying her colors. Major Anderson immediately dispatched a messenger to Gov. Pickens for explanations. The vessel fired into him since put to sea.

Great activity prevails at the Brooklyn navy yard, and it is reported that several orders of war vessels have been issued, orders having been received from Washington to that effect. Their destination is unknown.

A special despatch to the Post says it is rumored that the southern commissioners have demanded the immediate evacuation of Fort Sumter and Pickens.

Orders have been sent for every naval vessel to be put in immediate commission. The administration is determined to re-inforce Fort Pickens.

A special despatch to the Commercial, says the Secretary of the Interior has directed that no more land warrants be issued from the pension office to the citizens of the seceded states.

E. Delaford Smith was appointed, and took office, as district attorney of New York to-day, vice Roosevelt.

The government squadron is to be commanded by Captain Stringham. The reason for the increase of the naval force in that quarter are conjectured. The extreme caution that characterizes the administration in this, as well as other military subjects, occasions many warlike rumors.

The revenue cutter Harriet Lane left her mooring, off the battery, and anchored at quarantine. She is bound to sea.

PITTSBURGH, April 4.
The Mechanics' Bank of Pittsburgh has resumed specie payment to-day.

CHARLESTON, April 4.
Lieut. Talbot and Snider have just reached the city with a flag of truce. They are now in consultation with Gov. Pickens. Nothing has transpired as to their mission, but will be telegraphed as soon as known.

TO-DAY'S REPORT.

(Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

RICHMOND, April 4.

On reassembling the 4th resolution as amended was adopted in the committee of the whole.

Mr. Flourney moved to amend the 5th resolution by striking out the words "and to aid in suppressing domestic insurrection," thus making the declaration simply that the legitimate use of the force, &c., is to protect the country against foreign force; agreed to—68 to 61.

Five other amendments were referred.

Mr. Carlisle moved to amend by striking out the whole resolution, which was negatived.

The resolution was adopted.

WASHINGTON, April 4.
A reliable private despatch from Charleston says it is supposed that Major Anderson's supplies were cut off to-day, causing great commotion and anxiety as to the final result.

NORFOLK, April 4.
Hon. Roger A. Pryor arrived to-day, and was received by a great crowd and a salute of 15 guns fired. He delivered an address to-night.

MONTGOMERY, April 4.
Treasury notes of the confederate states were issued to-day. The first bond of a thousand dollars sold at twenty per cent premium.

NORFOLK, April 4.
Reported disturbance occurred among the workmen at Fort Monroe on account of the Palmer flag being raised outside of the fort. The soldiers dared not interfere with it.

WASHINGTON, April 4.
Extreme solitude is manifested everywhere concerning Fort Sumter and Pickens. Fears are expressed that a collision will be precipitated.

Information was received that Lieut. Talbot left Charleston to-day with important despatches for Washington.

New York, April 5.
The World's Washington despatch says many consider the naval preparations now going on as intended for a demonstration at San Domingo, while others contend that the revenue is to be collected at all southern ports. Also Commissioner Crawford has been informed by a authority that it is intended against the coast.

The Texas troops have been ordered south again.

Gov. Morton of Indiana, and Washburne of Maine, have had a long interview with the president urging the holding of all the forts at the south, and the speedy adoption of a definite policy.

Capt. Reynolds of Texas, denies that he has joined the revolutionists.

Hon. Chas. H. Phelps has been appointed surveyor of Boston.

Barrett, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, is urged for commissioner of pensions.

A Charleston despatch to the World says there is great activity there, and it is believed that Sumter will be attacked immediately. It is reported that orders have been received from President Davis to cut off supplies for Anderson, and no more communications be allowed from Sumter with the federal authorities.

A special despatch to the Tribune from Montgomery, says that the southern government is determined to take Pickets at all hazards, and if Lincoln attempts to obstruct southern commerce, all northern ships in southern waters will be seized.

A Washington despatch to the Tribune says instructions have been sent to the squadron of Pickets to be on the alert to cooperate with Lieut. Slemmer.

The attorney general is considering the legal authority of the president to collect duties on ship-board, and also his authority to call for volunteers.

The cabinet will determine to-morrow whether to re-inforce or evacuate Sumter.

New York, March 5.
Fort Lafayette in this harbor has been garrisoned.

pass the batteries, her being fired into, and her subsequent mysterious disappearance, and her subsequent apprehensions of the most serious character.

The military leaders have been unusually active to-day, and members of the convention now in session, belonging to the several fortifications, have been ordered to their stations.

A thousand rumors are in circulation, the principal of which indicates that Fort Sumter will be attacked in the course of a few days, and that the attack will be from the sea.

Major Anderson will soon surrender in self-defence, though it is believed that an attempt will seriously be made at reinforcement.

Two companies left the arsenal to-night for Savannah.

Later advices are understood to have been received from Montgomery, ordering further supplies to Major Anderson to be cut off. No further communication will be allowed between the fort and federal authorities.

The danger is imminent, and members of the convention are here expecting a conflict before Saturday.

The Times' Washington correspondent says the revenue laws will be enforced at Louisiana.

No visitors are admitted to the war department to-day.

The representatives of the great powers have unofficially expressed a desire that the Union should be maintained.

LOUISVILLE, April 5.
N. L. McClelland, tax collector of the western district of this city, is reported to have absconded a default to the amount of $30,000.

The Kentucky legislature adjourned sine die yesterday.

New York, April 5.
Stocks dull and lower, closing heavy.—U. S. 6's 81, coupons 92, do registered 92; V. 6's 74, Mo. 6's 62, N. C. 75, California 75 66, N. Y. 6's 65 1/2.

The Markets.
New York, April 5.
Flour market heavy, drooping; sales of 9,000 bbls.; 5.20a5.30 super state, 5.40a5.45 extra state, 5.20a5.30 super western, 5.30a5.35 common to medium extra western. Wheat market very dull and slightly easier; sales 40,000 bu., 1.27a1.32 Milwaukee club.

The Elections.—A more thorough examination of the returns of the elections held elsewhere, dispels much of the gloom which their first announcement created. In Connecticut there is a large gain for the republicans, over the gubernatorial election last year; and both branches of the legislature are supporters of that party.

St. Louis, last fall, the vote stood, Lincoln 10,000, and Hancock 14,900, making a majority of almost 5,000 in favor of Lincoln; while on Monday last, with a complete fusion of both branches of the democracy with the supporters of Bell, their majority was but from 2,000 to 3,000.

There has never been a time before, when the republican party, without outside aid, could come within three thousand of the combined opposition of that city. Here, before as at present, the republicans have had a plurality, but not a majority.

The combined republican vote, last November, amounted to 2,236 over the given Lincoln; and the majority against Brinkhoff was 2,445; while Hatch's majority, yesterday, was but 2,198.

It is not to be denied, however, that the republicans generally did expect to elect at least a portion of their ticket, and that they were greatly disappointed in the result. They presented, fairly, the issue of the enforcement of the laws; and they had a right to expect aid from the party that made such loud professions in that respect six months ago.

The republican leaders were not of ordinary character. The policy of the administration, thus far, has been temporizing, and the republicans themselves felt as if they were without a leader, while the thousands of Americans and democrats, who would have seconded a vigorous national policy, received no encouragement to abandon old associates and party affiliations.

The re-enforcement of Fort Sumter in the opinion of the administration, while as things were, even the republicans were not slow to avail themselves of the advantages they possessed, and the two wings labored together harmoniously. How long that entente cordiale will last, and how the combination will affect the two parties to the bargain, let the history of past fusions in this country and elsewhere teach.—Cincinnati Gazette.

[Special Despatches to the Cincinnati Gazette.]
WASHINGTON, April 2.
The New Loan.—The new eight million loan, the first under the new administration, was opened at the treasury department to-day, in presence of a large number of bankers, brokers, politicians and officers of the department. It has been quite apparent that the government was determined to be successful in this financial effort.

The loan, but very great success has not attended these efforts. The change in state stocks has been attentively watched, and even to within three minutes off time for closing the reception of bids, some ten or twelve were deposited on the strength of telegrams from Wall Street.

To-day, at 12 o'clock, Secretary Chase entered the treasury office, and some one hundred and seventy-five were left before the door, immediately commenced opening, declining to receive any more after the first sale was broken. The amount bid for was about $30,000,000, of which $21,000,000 was for New York, and the general average was ninety-three, though ninety-five was the maximum, and eighty-five the minimum. The average is at the sale of 7 per cent, and comes well up to general anticipation, though many were confident that it would be ninety-five or ninety-six.

OUR CURRENCY.—The Milwaukee Sentinel of this morning says:—
We have nothing new to note in regard to currency, except that the Wisconsin National Bank and the Wisconsin State Bank, to-day commenced receiving Illinois money at par—that is the bill of solvent banks, and the probability is that the others will follow the example before long. No additional Wisconsin banks have been discredited here, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary that were prevalent yesterday.
At Chicago yesterday exchange sold at 33 1/4 cent. premium.
The Madison Journal of last evening says:—
Our banks here will continue to receive the discredited [the Wisconsin] bills at par, and we do not think this action of the Chicago bankers will effect our currency in the state any more than their similar course did in 1857. We commend bill-holders not to get panic-stricken and make sacrifices.

CLINTON.—There were seven different tickets in Clinton last Tuesday. The regular (republican) ticket was elected by a small majority, with the exception of one justice of the peace, D. G. Cheever, who was defeated by 58 majority.

NEWARK.—The entire republican ticket is elected in Newark, E. L. Carpenter chairman supervisors. The democratic candidate for chairman received 15 votes.

TURTLE.—Knowlton's majority in this town is 47. In the town of Beloit Cole did not receive a vote.

AVON.—A letter from R. W. Golden says that Cole received 75 votes in Avon, Knowlton 6, and Eldredge 43. Republican town ticket, except superintendent of schools, elected.

MAGNOLIA.—We hear that Mr. Cole received all but 8 votes in Magnolia.

ROCK COUNTRY.—Without the vote of Magnolia, Plymouth and the town of Beloit, Knowlton's majority in this county on the reported returns, is 748. We do not think those towns will increase the majority for Mr. Knowlton.

RECEIVED ON DEPOSITS.—The Bank of Benton, Pamel Bank and the Lancaster Bank are received to-day by our city banks on deposit, at the usual discount on Illinois currency.

THE FARMERS' and MECHANICS' Bank of Fond du Lac, the Bank of Wisconsin at Watertown, and the Sun Prairie Bank are also received at their face. These latter are among the Wisconsin banks thrown out at Chicago.

CHARTER VOTES.—Beloit cast 551 votes for judge of the supreme court. Madison 1,342 for treasurer. Racine 1,109 for treasurer. Janesville 1,339 for treasurer.—These are the highest votes cast in each place. In neither was a full vote out.

CITY OF BELOIT.—The vote for judge of the supreme court in Beloit City was as follows:

- 1st Ward—Knowlton 119, Cole 28.
- 2d Ward—Knowlton 71, Cole 85.
- 3d Ward—Knowlton 123, Cole 3.
- 4th Ward—Knowlton 119, Cole 3.
- Total: Knowlton 432, Cole 119.

CITY BONDS.—The people of Beloit have held two meetings to adopt some measures to compromise on their city bonds. No thing specific was agreed upon.

INFANTICIDE.—The Beloit Journal says that on Friday last an infant was found deposited in the corner of a fence on or near the farm of W. G. Burton, about two miles east of that city. The child was wrapped in an apron with the strings wound about its neck in such a manner as to cause strangulation.

ONE SOUND BANK.—In these days when the less money a man has the better he is off, it must be gratifying to know where there is a "sound" institution. Platt Eycklesheimer avers, and we think he has the proof to back his assertion, that he has got enough in his market to live on for thirty days, banks or no banks. Certainly his quarters or halves, whether of bullock or steer, sheep or mutton, calf or veal, have an intrinsic value, and are good for their face. Just now he has some unusually fine beef, which is well calculated to fill an empty stomach and drive all thoughts of the head. Give him a calf.

THIS EVENING'S exhibition of the panoramas of the Holy Land is postponed on account of the rain and bad weather. There will be an exhibition to-morrow afternoon as will be seen in advertising columns to-day.
